Here are some basic recipes for you:

Lemon Dill Chicken w/ a lite cream sauce over egg noodles

Melt butter, add a touch of garlic, some dill, then whisk in milk or half-and-half with about a teaspoon of flour until the sauce thickens and is smooth. For the chicken breast, sauté in olive oil, butter, some salt pepper and dill. The egg noodles only take about 8 minutes. Some of the food pantries give out frozen chicken. Check St. Cecilia's in Englewood and your local CFA (Center for Food Action).

Simple Quiche, with bacon or....

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Ingredients: 6 eggs, 1 cup milk, salt, pepper, paprika pinch, and any additions that you want! Brown bacon as you normally would, then break up into little pieces. Shred Swiss cheese. Tear stems off of spinach. Put bacon, cheese, and spinach in bottom of pie crust. Beat the liquid ingredients and seasonings. Pour liquid in to the crust about 2 cm. from top as it will rise. Bake 60 minutes, then cool on rack about 20 min.

Buttermilk Chicken:

Combine 1/2 cup panko bread crumbs, 2 tbs grated Parmesan cheese, 2 tbs kosher salt, pinch of pepper, 1-1/2 teaspoons paprika, 1 teaspoon onion powder, 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder, 1/4 teaspoon chili powder.

Prep chicken by letting dark meat set in buttermilk bath over night. Dip chick parts in the dry mix; lay on baking sheet, top with oil spray (like Pam). Bake for 1 hour. They should be golden brown.

This recipe might be made with chicken from your local food pantry, such as St. Cecilia's in Englewood, or CFA. Both usually give out chicken, so the cost per meal is about two dollars.
